

It's more than traditional eSignatures: close deals quicker with the all-in-one platform.

Content creation

Use GetAccept's editor tool and library to create a range of engaging content that will close deals quicker.

Electronic signature

Securely send and receive signatures to and from your customers anytime, anywhere.

Personalised Sales

Humanise the process to create a trusting relationship. Create videos, engage through the chat function, link to your content all whilst staying on brand.

Automated Sales

Prevent delays with automated reminders, real-time notifications and live chat.

Reporting

Gain insights about new stakeholders, process progression, and estimated time of completion.

Contract management

Create stunning, branded, personalised proposals with ease. Add collateral to your content library and save documents in a searchable location to aid your sales team when making proposals.

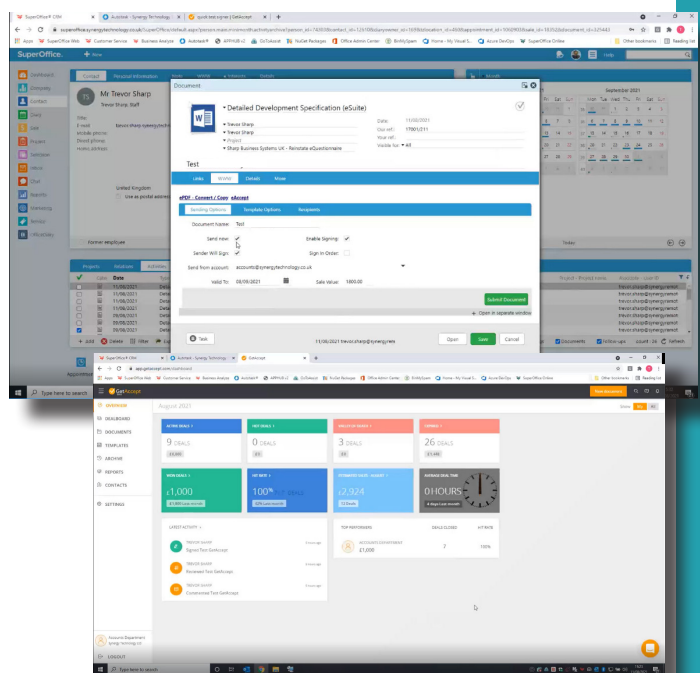

"Speed the signing process by 8x by using GetAccept integrated with SuperOffice"

Integrated for SuperOffice

Ensure that documents are automatically archived against the correct customer card, regardless of whether SuperOffice templates or GetAccept dynamic templates are used.

Put the customer experience at the forefront of your service.

"When using automated reminders, documents have an average hit rate of 75.3%"

This solution will enable you to:

- Be confident that you are following GDPR, and the documents are legally binding using ESIGN, UETA and eIDAS.
- Save time when finding important documents which are all stored in a central and searchable location.
- See when the document has been opened in real-time.
- Identify and engage all stakeholders - decision makers and influencers alike.
- Accelerate deals with automatic reminders being sent to prospects.
- Assign each recipient a different role from the following: approvers, influencers and reviewers.
- Stand out from the crowd with personalised proposals, in turn building trust and creating engagement.
- See which recipients have opened the documents, and how long they have spent on each page or section of the proposal.
- Centralise data through the fully integrated solution with SuperOffice.

"GetAccept is used safely and securely by users in more than 50 countries"
